

FINANCIAL POLICY

- Fees and Payments: Vida Care providers charge fees for services, which may differ from the given estimate. You are responsible for any copays, deductibles, and coinsurance under your insurance plan. Copays are due at the time of service.
- Unpaid Balances: If your insurance does not cover the full cost of care, you (or your responsible party) must pay the remaining balance. This also applies if you are within an insurance grace period.
- Incorrect Insurance Information: If the insurance information provided is incorrect, you will be responsible for the charges.
- No Insurance: If you do not have health insurance, you are responsible for all medical service fees.
- Medicare Coverage: Medicare only covers care that is medically necessary under Section 1862(a)(1) of the Medicare Law. By signing, you confirm the information provided to Vida Care for billing under Titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act is accurate.
- Insurance Billing: Vida Care will bill your health insurance directly, and payments will be made on your behalf.
